TEXAS BURNING LIVE CONCERT HONORED FOR BEST MUSIC VIDEO PRODUCTION – SPECIALS & SHOWS AT 2007 WORLDFEST INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

HOUSTON, TX (May 3, 2007) - Award Winning Director/Producer John Frazier of Rollin' Films in Houston Texas, received a Platinum Remy Award for "The Best Music Video Production – Specials & Shows" for 2007 with Rampant Entertainment's Texas Burning, "A Lone Star Salute to Our Troops" live broadcast concert at the 40th Annual WorldFest International Film Festival's Grand Awards Gala on April 28, 2007. The Texas Burning concert featured singer songwriters Patricia Vonne, Shannon McNally, Theresa Andersson, Sherman Robertson, Ruthie Foster, Carolyn Wonderland, and Sam Baker. The concert was produced and directed by John Frazier on January 27, 2007 as a live broadcast event honoring our troops worldwide from the Charline McCombs Theater in San Antonio, Texas.

"The live concert, Texas Burning, was a truly magical moment with some incredible performances by some very talented artist. Equally our production crew gave it their all to record this performance. It's a true honor to have been part of it all and have received such high honors from WorldFest," said Frazier.

"Rampant Entertainment is thrilled that our debut presentation of Texas Burning won a Platinum Remi Award. John's talent and expertise in producing live concert events, utilizing the latest in HD technology, combined with the incredible musical performances, has created a concert video experience that all music fans will love. We look forward to working with him in capturing more magical nights of the best in Texas music," said Tony Cutrona, Rampant Entertainment.

WorldFest is one of the oldest and largest film & video competitions in the world, with more than 4,500 category entries received from 37 countries. "This year's competition was challenging having competed head to head with the "Rock and Roll Gear Head" production featuring ZZ Top's frontman Billy Gibbons who won the Gold Remi in the same category," said Frazier.
